

Occupational Medicine Program Available in the Eastern Panhandle

Protecting the Hands That Build Our Communities

Construction and skilled trades professionals face unique risks every day. WVU Medicine's Occupational Medicine Program is here to help your team stay safe, compliant, and ready to work.

Services Built for Your Industry:

- Pre-Employment Screenings
 - Physical exams tailored to job demands
 - Functional capacity evaluations
 - Rapid scheduling and reporting
- Drug & Alcohol Testing
 - DOT and non-DOT compliant panels
 - Pre-employment, random, and post-incident testing
 - Fast, confidential results
- Fall Prevention Support
 - Risk assessments for high-hazard roles
 - Safety training and education
 - Post-injury evaluations and return-to-work planning
- Hearing Protection & Testing
 - Audiometric testing
 - OSHA-compliant hearing conservation programs
 - Noise exposure monitoring
- Respiratory Clearance & Fit Testing
 - N95 and full-face respirator evaluations
 - Spirometry testing
 - OSHA-compliant documentation

Why Partner with WVU Medicine?

- Trusted by industry leaders across the region
- Experienced occupational health providers
- Convenient locations across the Eastern Panhandle
- Responsive service tailored to your workforce

Location & Contact Information:

Tracy Hilton, BSN, RN, MROA
Medical Office Building 1, Suite 103
2010 Doctor Oates Drive
Martinsburg, WV 25401

Phone: 304-260-1406

Email: eastocmed@wvumedicine.org

Let's build a safer, healthier job site—together.
Contact us today to schedule services or learn more.