

Occupational Medicine Program Available in the Eastern Panhandle

Protecting Those Who Protect Us

From first responders to public works teams, your workforce faces high-risk environments every day. WVU Medicine's Occupational Medicine Program is here to ensure your team stays healthy, prepared, and mission-ready.

Specialized Services for Public Sector & Emergency Services:

- Pre-Employment Screenings
 - Role-specific physicals
 - Functional capacity evaluations
 - Rapid documentation and clearance
- Fit-for-Duty Exams
 - Post-injury and return-to-work assessments
 - Fitness evaluations for high-demand roles
 - Compliance with agency protocols
- Post-Exposure Protocols
 - Bloodborne pathogen response
 - Rapid testing and follow-up care
 - Confidential reporting and documentation
- Hazardous Materials Evaluations
 - Respirator clearance and fit testing
 - Spirometry testing
 - HAZMAT physicals and compliance exams
- Mental Health Support
 - Stress and trauma screenings
 - Referral coordination for behavioral health
 - Wellness check-ins for high-stress roles
- Immunizations & Health Maintenance
 - Hepatitis B, Tdap, Influenza, COVID-19
 - TB testing and clearance
 - Immunity verification and titers

Why Partner with WVU Medicine?

- Trusted by emergency services and public agencies across the region
- Experienced in regulatory compliance and occupational health standards
- Convenient locations across the Eastern Panhandle
- Fast, responsive service tailored to your operational needs

Let's keep your team healthy, compliant, and ready to serve. Contact us today to schedule services or learn more.

Location & Contact Information:

Tracy Hilton, BSN, RN, MROA
Medical Office Building 1, Suite 103
2010 Doctor Oates Drive
Martinsburg, WV 25401

Phone: 304-260-1406

Email: eastocmed@wvumedicine.org