

Financial Aid:

West Virginia University Hospitals is accredited by the USDE to participate in the Federal Student Financial Aid Programs. Dietetic interns are qualified by educational level for participation in the Direct Loan program; however, financial aid eligibility will be determined upon admission into the program. When applying for financial aid, students should use school code 012573 on the FAFSA. Dietetic interns interested in participating in financial aid at WVUH should contact the following for institutional forms and instructions:
