Choose someone to act for you	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.• We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting the Enterprise Director of Privacy: 1-844-988-6446, wvumnopp@wvumedicine.org• You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting https://www.hhs.gov/hipaa/filing-a-complaint/index.html.• We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory
- Contact you for fundraising efforts

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

In the case of fundraising:

- We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

Fundraising efforts are handled through the individual hospital foundations, who may use the following information about you for fundraising purposes: Patient demographic information (including name, address, phone/email, date of birth, age, and gender); health insurance status; dates of service; the department and physician who provided services; and outcomes information. You have the right to opt out of fundraising efforts by contacting the foundation at your specific hospital, whose contact information is available at <https://wvumedicine.org/about/rights-privacy-and-non-discrimination/notice-of-privacy-practices>

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

- We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Shared Medical Record/Health Information Exchanges

- We maintain PHI about our patients in shared electronic medical records that allow WVU Medicine and its affiliates to share PHI for treatment and healthcare operations purposes. We may share your health information using various Health Information Exchanges (HIE) that WVU Medicine participates in both on a State, regional and a national basis. If you choose not to participate in these exchanges, you may 'Opt-out' at any time by notifying the Patient Access/Registration Department; however, your decision to 'Opt-Out' does not affect the information that was exchanged prior to the time you chose not to participate.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: <https://www.hhs.gov/hipaa/for-individuals/guidance-materials-for-consumers/index.html>.
