

WVU Medicine – Camden Clark Medical Center
PGY1 Residency Program Structure

Learning Experience	Duration
Required - Rotational
Orientation	6 weeks
Academic Hospitalist	5 weeks
Critical Care	5 weeks
Infectious Disease	5 weeks
Required - Selective
Management (Choose one)	5 weeks
- Administrative Management
- Clinical Management
Ambulatory (Choose one)	5 weeks
- Transitions of Care
- Internal Medicine	Will not be scheduled until second half of residency year and RPD deems residents ready for independent practice
Longitudinal
Formulary Management	9 months (One day per month dedicated as a full project day; Formulary reviews as assigned by Enterprise MUE team; MUE completion and presentation at Vizient Pharmacy Network meeting; MUE presentation to CCMC P&T and appropriate Enterprise P&T subcommittee (if applicable); MUE impact and action plan (as applicable))
Hospital Pharmacy Practice – Staffing Component	10 months (after orientation block and licensed, every third weekend two 8-hour shifts, every third week)

	one 8-hour evening shift, 1 winter and 1 spring holiday 8-hour shift)
Research	12 months (One day per month dedicated as full project day; Project development of publishable quality addressing an area of significance to CCMC or WVUH Enterprise; creation of proposal, data collection tool, preparation of manuscript of publishable quality; presentation of project as a platform presentation at Eastern States Residency Conference)
Teaching Certificate Program	12 months (One 2-hour didactic lecture per week; one large lecture per semester; teaching portfolio development; OSCE preceptor at least once per semester; MTM simulations; CE development in spring; pharmacy department journal clubs)
Electives - Rotational
Antimicrobial Stewardship	5 weeks
Emergency Medicine	5 weeks
Medical Oncology	5 weeks
Medication Safety	5 weeks
May repeat any Required Direct Patient Care Rotation x 1	5 weeks